THE SPEED MARVEL OF THE CENTURY-RECTOR, OF VIRGINIA

Really Means to Run 100 Yards in 92-5 seconds? Then Listen.

HIS past week has seen two of the most marvellous athletic performances in all the hisof sport. The surprising thing, athletes in the Metropolitan disathlete in a remote State.

James A. Rector has run, in competition, a 100-yard dash in the remarkable time of 9 2-5 seconds. Repeating in another set of games within a week he made the distance in 9 3-5 seconds, equalling the world's records held by Arthur Duffey and Dan Kelly. This second performance was made in the dual meet on Saturyes no possible doubt of the accuy of the timing. The man who ran

SOME day an athlete will run 100 yards in 9 seconds. Ten years ago they would have locked a man up in Matteawan for making that prediction. But times change n athletic sports more, perhaps, than in anything also and in his training adopts a simple but more, perhaps, than in anything eise.

American athletic progress is one of the wonders of the modern world. To-day all but a few long-distance running records, are held right here in the land that Columbus found. American athletes are taking a lead that all the strong men of other lands are unable to overgone.

The Metropolitan B. B. Their challenge was quickly accepted. Teddy Siedle and Max Hirsch, well known in theatrical circles, will unpire the centest.
